HMGT 6336 (ACCT 6336) Information Technology Audit and Risk Management (3 semester hours) Management’s role in designing and controlling information technology used to process data is studied. Topics include the role of internal and external auditors in systems development, information security, business continuity, information technology, internet, change management and operations. Focus is placed on the assurance of controls over information technology risks and covers topics directly related to the Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA) exam. (3-0) Y (2016-02-05 21:50:09)