HUSL6381 - Critical Approaches to Translation

HUSL 6381 Critical Approaches to Translation (3 semester hours) The study of the various approaches to the history, theory, and criticism of literary and humanistic translation. Topics may include the translator's working methods, interviews with translators, multiple translations, the changing nature of interpretive approaches, theoretical models of translation, and criteria for the evaluation of translations. (May be repeated for credit as topics vary to a maximum of 6 credit hours.) (3-0) T (2016-02-05 22:12:58)