OB6335 - Organizational Development Process and Practice

OB 6335 Organizational Development Process and Practice (3 semester credit hours) Explores the functions and practices of organizational development. Topics include establishing vision and mission and strategic alignment, conducting inquiry and addressing resistance, engaging leaders and supporting participants, and small scale change - individuals and groups. Prerequisite: OB 6334 or instructor consent required. (3-0) R (2016-02-05 18:46:01)