HMGT 6327 Information and Knowledge Management in Healthcare (3 semester credit hours) An interactive, experiential course in which students will utilize hands-on, practice-oriented opportunities to learn the core components of clinical information systems used by major health care systems in the United States. The course will include a substantial lab-based component in which students will follow guided exercises and assignments using a leading EMR software. The semester-long course will include a mix of classroom lectures, lab-based software exercises, and case analyses. Prerequisite: HMGT 6323. (3-0) Y (2016-02-05 18:46:40)