ACCT2302 - Introductory Management Accounting

ACCT 2302 (ACCT 2302) Introductory Management Accounting (3 semester credit hours) An introduction to the determination, development, and uses of internal accounting information needed by management to satisfy customers while continuously controlling and containing costs. The course is designed to benefit all students who will be future users of accounting information. Students must earn a grade of C or better to progress to ACCT 3331, ACCT 3341, and ACCT 3350. Prerequisite: ACCT 2301 with a grade of C or better. (3-0) S (2016-03-17 11:16:10)