

IMS6360 - International Strategic Management

IMS 6360 International Strategic Management (3 semester hours) This course examines the strategic challenges that multinational firms face. Issues such as managing across national boundaries, responding to environmental challenges, managing international joint ventures and strategic alliances, managing headquarters-subsidary relationships, and developing global capabilities will be discussed. Prerequisite: IMS 6204. (3-0) Y