International Political Economy (BA, BS)

The International Political Economy program is an interdisciplinary academic program to help students function successfully in today's increasingly complex international environment. Graduates will develop skill sets that include critical thinking, knowledge of multiple cultures, and effective communication skills. Students will be prepared for entry-level analytical and administrative positions in the public, nonprofit, and for profit private sectors. The School of Economic, Political and Policy Sciences offers both the BA and BS degree in International Political Economy. The BA degree places a somewhat greater emphasis on culture, literature, and history. The BS degree places a somewhat greater emphasis on economics and international finance.

Employment options include, but are not limited to:

- Careers in the diplomatic corps;
- Positions with international organizations including The United Nations, World Trade Organization, World Bank, and others;
- Positions with multinational corporations as analysts and managers.
