

HMGT6407 - Healthcare Policy and Regulation

HMGT 6407 Healthcare Policy and Regulation (4 semester credit hours) Executive Education Course. Examines the social, political and economic forces that are shaping US healthcare policy. Analyzes the federal government's role in the financing and regulation of healthcare, discusses the government's enforcement role with Center for Medicare (CMS) and the Office of Inspector General (OIG) and analyzes the prospects for healthcare reform. This class is held in Washington, DC. (4-0) T