MIS3300 - Introduction to Management Information Systems

MIS 3300 Introduction to Management Information Systems (3 semester credit hours) Examines key business processes in organizations and how information systems support the execution and management of these processes. The course also deals with how to structure and manipulate data that might typically be found in an information system using the database management system, MS Access, and spreadsheet software, MS Excel, to make business decisions. (3-0) S