IMS4334 - International Leadership

IMS 4334 International Leadership (3 semester credit hours) Addresses the challenge of leading organizations in a dynamic global environment. Overall goal is to not only question one’s assumptions about leadership, but also enhance skills and acquire new content knowledge. Topics include visionary and transformational leadership; empowerment; leveraging and combining resources; designing organizations; and ethics. Prerequisites: OBHR 4350 and IMS 4330. (3-0) Y