HIST3333 - European Social and Political Thought

HIST 3333 European Social and Political Thought (3 semester credit hours) A study of such concepts in social and political theory as authority, justice, equality, law, revolution, natural rights, state, and nation. May include texts by Locke, Burke, Bentham, Mill, Marx, and Nietzsche. Prerequisite: Completion of a 060 core course. (3-0) R