CS3385 - Ethics, Law, Society, and Computing

CS 3385 Ethics, Law, Society, and Computing (3 semester credit hours) Issues of professional ethics; computer crime; wiretapping and encryption; protecting software and other intellectual property; privacy and information; careers and computers; reliability and safety; constitutional issues. Broader issues on the impact and control of computers. (3-0) S