

ACCT6343 - Accounting Information Systems

ACCT 6343 Accounting Information Systems (3 semester credit hours) Managing the design, control, and operation of accounting information systems with a focus on design thinking and digital transformation. Emphasis will be on identifying the information needs of decision makers and developing appropriate process control with an overall focus on business transformation. Modern concepts, including cloud-based enterprise systems and robotic process automation, will be applied to streamline integration of accounting and business processes. Prerequisite: ACCT 6301 or ACCT 6305 or an undergraduate degree in Accounting and adequate foundation/academic performance in a corresponding area, or ACCT 6320. (3-0) S