Undergraduate Admission

Re-entry of Former UT Dallas Students

Students who were previously enrolled at The University of Texas at Dallas, may return to the University by following the re-entry process if they meet the following criteria:

- Have not registered for at least three successive semesters (not including summer semesters) and within the life of a catalog at UT Dallas; and
- Left UT Dallas with a 2.000 cumulative gpa overall and in the major (good standing); and
- Left in good standing (the information will be listed on the official transcript) from all other former institutions attended; and
- previously were undergraduate, degree-seeking students and now return as undergraduate, degree-seeking students in the same degree program; or
- previously were undergraduate, non-degree seeking students and now return as undergraduate, non-degree seeking students; and
- Remain in the same major; and
- Have not unsuccessfully taken a required course three times; and
- Contact the academic advisor for an updated degree plan.

If the student qualifies under the re-entry policy, the student must submit a re-entry form with departmental and advisor approval and return it to the Office of the Registrar 10 days before the first day of class. If there are questions regarding the re-entry process and submission, contact the Registrar's Office by email, records@utdallas.edu.

Readmission of Former UT Dallas Students

Students who were previously enrolled at The University of Texas at Dallas, may be considered for return to the University by following the re-application process through Apply Texas to return to the university if they meet the following criteria:

- Have not registered for at least three successive semesters (not including summer semesters) at UT Dallas; and
- Left UT Dallas with a cumulative gpa of less than 2.000 (probation, warning or dismissal status); or
- Did not leave in good standing (the information will be listed on your official transcript) from all other former institutions attended; or
- Graduated from UT Dallas with a conferred degree; or
- Wishes to attend UTD under a new degree program/major.
Additional Requirements

Upon re-entry or readmission, students must meet the requirements of the catalog in effect for the term. If accepted, students will be bound by all conditions of the current catalog. Re-entry and readmission students are subject to the requirements set forth by legislative or regental action, and changes become effective on the date of enactment.

All students reentering or readmitted will have their Texas residency re-determined in accordance with Texas law.

Students who attended another college or university since they last enrolled at UT Dallas must submit official transcripts of all such work to the following address:

The Office of the Registrar
The University of Texas at Dallas
800 West Campbell Road
ROC 13
Richardson, TX 75080-3021

See "Academic Suspension" in the Academic Policies and Procedures section for more information regarding students returning to the University following academic suspension.
