

IMS4340 - Leading and Managing Globally

IMS 4340 Leading and Managing Globally (3 semester credit hours) This course aims to develop the cross-cultural competence and communication skills required when managing globally. This course provides knowledge on what are the skills needed by global managers, how to effectively communicate across cultures, managing responsibly, negotiating global agreements, managing global teams, and working and living globally. Prerequisite: IMS 3310. (3-0) S